FABRIC

Standard fabric / waterproof

Premium fabric Rubelli / water repellent

Fabric selection is divided in two groups: Water repellent and Waterproof. Both types of high quality fabric have an adequate protection against atmospheric events and are exclusively predicted for outdoor use. Water repellent considers a fabric that is not 100% waterproof but in combination with the outdoor sponge makes that penetrated water doesn't hold back, while Waterproof material in its composition has the specific membrane that completely holds the liquid at the surface and doesn't let the penetration into fabric.

HPL

Another material in the palette is HPL (High Pressure Laminates), that was used for table tops and which is in many ways impressive, both structurally and visually. Produced by a sophisticated technological process, it's an ideal combination of aesthetics and durability to outdoor conditions, in particularly abrasion, bumps and extreme temperature variations.
